I am so honored to be a part of this amazing FREE teleseminar beginning this week — my talk airs on January 23 but you MUST sign up NOW to get access to the amazing information and the FREE resources centered on "Shattered Woman Rising."

To me, this topic is near and dear to my heart — and to ALL of our hearts. It goes beyond being a cancer survivor, though, and looks at the unique challenges of being a female and balancing our lives through disease, destruction, addiction, abuse, and more.

My talk of course centers around the narrative of cancer — Erin is also a cancer survivor and when she reached out to me via LinkedIn to be a part of this, I knew I had to do it!

I hope you sign up for this free resource and get as much out of it as I intend to as I will be signing up myself!

The link is here! Thanks!
