Lung Cancer Research Funding [VIDEO]

I wanted to highlight the eye-popping discrepancy in how our federal research dollars are allocated for lung cancer compared to other cancers.

Friends and Family,

It's Lung Cancer Awareness Month, so I wanted to highlight the eye-popping discrepancy in how our federal research dollars are allocated for lung cancer compared to other cancers. Why does this imbalance continue year after year?

I made this video a year ago, and used statistics gathered from the Lung Cancer Alliance website, which is now the Go2 Foundation.

Love,

Dann
