

Advanced Prostate Cancer Treatments and Side Effects [VIDEO]

Blogger Daniel Zeller recommends a video from Eugene Kwon, MD, about the latest updates on treatments for advanced prostate cancer.

This is an excellent hour-long video on advanced prostate cancer and its treatment from the Prostate Cancer Research Institute and Dr. Kwon.

You may want to watch this on a computer with a monitor instead of your mobile device, as the print in the slides that are presented is rather small and difficult to view on a small screen.
