Welcome to Stay in the Game: Conversations about prostate Cancer with Ed Randall. Here we'll chat with doctors, researchers, medical professionals, survivors, and others to share and connect. This show was produced and shared by Fans for the Cure, a non-profit dedicated to serving men on their journeys through prostate cancer.

A practicing radiation oncologist who oversees one of the largest radiation oncology departments in the country, Dr. Louis Potters serves as Chairperson of Radiation Medicine at Northwell Health, and Professor at the Zucker School of Medicine at Hofstra/Northwell. He's also deputy physician in chief in the Marilyn and Barry Rubenstein Chair in Cancer Research for the Northwell Health Cancer Institute. Together with his colleagues at Northwell Health, Dr. Potters pursues a team approach to treating prostate cancer geared to deliver the best outcomes for patients.
