Yankees Pitcher David Robertson Steps Up for Pancreatic Cancer Awareness Month [VIDEO]

Robertson’s father-in-law died of the disease in 2016.

November 1, 2018 By Pancreatic Cancer Action Network

New York Yankees relief pitcher David Robertson aims to strike out more than just batters. By supporting the Pancreatic Cancer Action Network (PanCAN), Robertson hopes to help end pancreatic cancer. Robertson’s passion is driven by the memory of his father-in-law, Rick Cronin, who died from the disease in 2016. Robertson urges friends and fans to Demand Better with PanCAN during November for Pancreatic Cancer Awareness Month to provide hope and improve outcomes for all pancreatic cancer patients.

Do you know someone diagnosed with pancreatic cancer? Direct them to Patient Central for information, resources and hope. Call 877-2-PANCAN, email patientcentral@pancan.org or visit http://pcan.at/pty. Associates are available Monday – Friday, 7 a.m. – 5 p.m. PT.

ABOUT PANCREATIC CANCER ACTION NETWORK:

The Pancreatic Cancer Action Network (PanCAN) is dedicated to fighting the world’s toughest cancer. In our urgent mission to save lives, we attack pancreatic cancer on all fronts: research, clinical initiatives, patient services and advocacy. Our effort is amplified by a nationwide network of grassroots support. We are determined to improve patient outcomes today and to double survival by 2020.
